

Please do not weaken Indiana's Indiana's Telephone Privacy law as has been requested by the Consumer Bankers Association. Although I may have a business relationship with a company, that does not mean that I intend for them to have the right to place sales calls to me. If I need an additional service from a company that I am or have done business with I will contact them.